About the District:

The vision of Twin Valley Community Local School District is for every student to achieve success. The PreK-12 facility is on one campus located in the village of West Alexandria, Ohio. Each of its approximately 711 students, preschool through 12th grade, is offered numerous opportunities in academics, athletics, technology or the arts. Students also may choose from a variety of extracurricular projects, clubs and events. The district is comprised of three schools: Twin Valley South Elementary (Pre-K-5), Twin Valley South Middle School (6-8) and Twin Valley South High School (9-12). Junior and seniors may also attend the Miami Valley Career Technology Center. Grades 7-12 students can also take advantage of College Credit Plus course work through Edison and Sinclair Community Colleges.
